Death of Mrs. H. P. Stowe.
Died, at Stowe, Vt., Feb. 9, 1896, Phyllis Briggs Stowe, wife of Haven P. Stowe, aged 74 years.

With the death of Mrs. Stowe, Stowe loses one of its most worthy and estimable women. She was the daughter of Judge Jonathan Briggs, and was born on the Briggs farm in Essex, Vt., 1822. Early through her own resources, and determined to be independent, she went to Montpelier, and there in the shop and under the tailors' needle she became an efficient tailor. After leaving Mr. Riker's shop she returned to Hardwick, where she worked as the custom in those days, at her trade from house to house, wherever her services were needed, and a little later formed a partnership with Miss Mary Perkins and Mrs. Mary Tinker and opened a tailor shop in the village of Morrisville, with the sign "Briggs & Perkins" over the door. This business was continued for some time, when, desiring a larger field in which to carry on her trade, she went to Lowell, Mass. Here she soon married V. A. Stowe, a Morrisville youth who had gone to Lawrence, Mass., to seek his fortune. After leaving home in Lawrence, V. A. Stowe, Mr. and Mrs. Stowe returned to Morrisville, purchased the Herick farm on the Randolph road, and lived there a few years until they moved to Stowe in '85. While living on this farm five children were born to them, only one of whom, Annie, wife of V. A. Ballard of Burlington, Vt., is now living. Although unknown to fame here has been a useful and exemplary life. "Economy" was her motto, and to be able to work and accomplish something each day was to her a blessing to be deeply grateful for. But it was in her home where she was at her best. Here no pains was too great, no toil too arduous to make those connected with it, or those who cared to share its hospitality, contented and happy, while the deepest and most tender sympathy attached to the words wife, mother, neighbor personified in her.

The funeral took place from the house Feb. 5, and the remains placed in the new vault in Morrisville to be interred later at the old cemetery at that place.

Sour

Stomach, sometimes called waterbrash, and burning pain, distress, nausea, dyspepsia, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This it accomplishes because with its wonderful power as a blood purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla gently tones and strengthens the stomach and digestive organs, invigorates the liver, creates an appetite, gives refreshing sleep, and raises the health tone. In cases of dyspepsia and indigestion it seems to have "a magic touch."

"For over 12 years I suffered from sour

with severe pains across my shoulders, and great distress. I had violent nausea which would leave me very weak and faint, difficult to get my breath. These spells came oftener and more severe. I did not receive any lasting benefit from physicians, but found such happy effects from a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I took several bottles and mean to always keep it in the house. I am now able to do all my own work, which for six years I have been unable to do. My husband and son have also been greatly benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla—for pains in the back, and after the grip. I gladly recommend this grand blood medicine."
